Voter Guide

I did not mark the Heartbeat Law Question, even though I believe life begins at conception and any abortion is wrong.

The government should be what the people decide so I back a referendum to vote on the question of abortion legality.

In addition, I propose what I call in-utero adoption, when a woman decides to abort, she and the baby are adopted for the length of her pregnancy. The adoptive parents provide medical expenses, and possibly salary as a surrogate mother. This would be a strong incentive to the mother that had proposed the abortion to stop this idiocy.
